

Meet the “Universal moderator” Justine Cogan:

- I'm Justine and I'm a member of the Travel Team at Internet Brands. I'm excited to be working with the amazing Wikitravel community!
I love to travel and had the good luck to live in Spain for several years. I traveled quite a bit while I was there, from great little towns like Peníscola to big cities like Barcelona and Madrid (where I lived!).
I'm sort of a city traveler mostly because I like museums, restaurants and meeting people. Some of my favorites are Lisbon, Istanbul, Paris, Bordeaux and Rome. But I'm partial to nature, too and some of the prettiest places I've been are Lake Tahoe, Yosemite, Park City, Utah and Brazil (especially Paraty).
